

TEACHING THE PEOPLE

Discussing Issues For Enlightenment Of the Voter.

BUDGET OF POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE.

Bryan Given a Reception at Washington While on His Way to Maryland — Roosevelt Campaigning in the Catskills.

Washington, Oct. 23.—William J. Bryan spent an hour and a quarter at the national capital Tuesday. His train arrived over the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad from West Virginia at 7:55 o'clock a. m. About 1,000 people were awaiting him at the depot. As the train pulled in amid cheers of the waiting crowd, ex-Judge William M. Springer, former chairman of the committee on ways and means, an old colleague and warm friend of the Democratic candidate, stepped to Mr. Bryan's private car at the rear of the train and welcomed him. The two then passed down through the depot followed by a large and enthusiastic crowd and gradually worked their way to the entrance. Here an automobile was in waiting and they were taken to the residence of Judge Springer, opposite the capitol, where Mr. Bryan had breakfast. Colonel Isaac Hill, Democratic whip of the house of representatives, was the only other guest. A few minutes before 9 o'clock Mr. Bryan was driven to the Baltimore and Ohio depot where he made a brief speech. He spoke on imperialism and civil service. A large assemblage of people was massed about the depot. Mr. Bryan said: "Occasionally I hear it suggested that persons engaged in the civil service who are opposed to imperialism will vote the Republican ticket for fear of losing their positions with the government. Certainly there are not many who would prefer government employment under an empire to whatever risk might attend their employment under a republic. I am not much of an admirer of that civil service which is suspended when a president is inaugurated until he can fill the offices with friends and is extended by the president when he is about to retire, in order that he may protect his friends in office. I believe that a system of civil service might be devised wherein appointments would be made upon merit and wherein the appointees would hold for a fixed term and not be dependent upon the will of an appointing officer. The industrial despotism inaugurated by the Republican party is closing the door of opportunity against the young man and driving many to seek government employment who under better conditions would be employed in producing salaries." Mr. Bryan closed with the statement that it was not his highest ambition to be president, but to make the government so good that to be a private citizen in this republic will be a greater honor than to be a king in any other nation.

A delegation from the Maryland state central committee met Mr. Bryan here and at a few minutes after 9 he left in a special train of three cars for Rockville where he made the first of a series of speeches in a tour of Maryland towns. Before reaching Washington, the train on which Mr. Bryan came in made a brief stop at Alexandria, Va. The statement had been made in advance that Mr. Bryan would make a brief speech in that town and a large number of people congregated at the railroad yards to greet him. They received him with vociferous cheers, but no time was given for a speech. Mr. Bryan had only time to say that he felt complimented to have so many people come out to greet him so early in the morning. He felt, he said, sure of Virginia's support, and from what he had seen of other states recently he felt justified in asserting that Virginia would have plenty of company election day.

Mr. Bryan made stops in Maryland at Rockville, Junction, Frederick and other points.

Roosevelt's Campaign.
Kingston, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Despite the strain of preceding speeches Governor Roosevelt found his throat in excellent condition when he arose. It was 9 o'clock when the train started up the Catskill mountains. The trip for the day covers 276 miles and 15 speeches. Stops were made at West Hurley, Shokan, Phenicia, Pine Hill and other points.

Z. T. Lewis Dead.
West Union, O., Oct. 2.—Z. T. Lewis, a former banker at Urbana, O., who was convicted several years ago of extensive forgeries but was pardoned on account of ill health, is dead at his home in Adams county.

BIG DEFALCATION.

Teller of New York Bank Gets Away With a Fortune.

New York, Oct. 23.—Shortly before the close of business in Wall street it was announced that the First national bank had suffered a defalcation of $700,000 through one of its tellers, C. L. Alvord.

The bank gave out the following statement: The note teller, who has been in the employ of the First National bank and a financial advisor to large amount. His operations have continued for a considerable period and have been skillfully concealed through a manipulation of his balance book. The discovery was made by one of the bank employes a few days after the completion of an examination of the bank by the United States examiners.

The First national bank is one of the largest banking institutions in the city. Its president is George F. Baker, who is also president of the Astor national bank and a financial advisory of the Astor family. The bank is located at No. 2 Wall street and has a capital of $500,000, a surplus of $5,000,000 and undivided profits of $4,000,000. Alvord had been with the bank 20 years and had risen to the position of note teller. He is not yet under arrest.

SENT TO JAIL.

President of Cleveland Council Imprisoned For Contempt.

Cleveland, Oct. 23.—Judge Wing of the common pleas court ordered President D. B. Steurer of the city council sent to jail for contempt in refusing to testify in the councilmanic bribery investigation. The court held that the council committee had full authority to compel witnesses to answer questions and if they refused to do so they were guilty of contempt. The writ of habeas corpus sought by Steurer was denied. Steurer was committed to the county jail but furnished bail and was released.

Another Start.

New York, Oct. 23.—The new battleship Kentucky, bound for the Asiatic station to relieve the Oregon and which sailed Saturday but returned the same night to the anchorage off Tompkinsville, owing to one of the big guns in the forward turret not working properly, has sailed again, passing off Sandy Hook at 9:30 a. m. If the turret stands the test that will be given off Sandy Hook, the Kentucky will continue on her voyage.

Missionary Meeting.

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 23.—The 54th annual meeting of the American Missionary association opened here with 400 delegates in attendance and will continue until Thursday evening with morning, afternoon and evening sessions. Mayor W. P. Hayes gave the address of welcome from the city and the Rev. Philip S. Moxom, D.D., the address of welcome from the churches, to which President Noble of Illinois made response.

Young Yachtsmen Safe.

New York, Oct. 23.—Captain Frederick Langston of Brooklyn, whose two sons, Frederick and William H. and Otto Segelke and Noah Mason were not heard of after they started to sail the yacht Aliris from Highland Beach to Gravesend bay last Tuesday, received a cable message from Port Antonio announcing they were safe.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Oct. 23.—Philpot and Bohner company, Cleveland, $5,000; McQuillan Grain and Hay company, Cincinnati, $5,000; Marietta, Columbus and Cleveland Railroad company, Marietta, $250,000; Paul A. Sorg Paper company, Middletown, $200,000.

President Sam Threatened.

Kingston, Jam., Oct. 23.—A report is current to the effect that a filibustering expedition headed by a well known Haytian exile is being prepared here for the overthrow of the government of General Simon Sam, president of Hayti.

Dented by Russia.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 23.—The minister of finance, M. Dewitte, authorizes a denial of the story that Russia began negotiations in New York in the middle of October for a $50,000,000 loan.

Killed on a Trestle.

Martins Ferry, O., Oct. 23.—Bertha Dorsch, 13, while returning home from school attempted to cross a railway trestle. When half way across she was struck by a freight train and killed.

Mrs. Brice Seriously Ill.

New York, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Calvin S. Brice, widow of Senator Brice of Ohio, is ill at her home in Fifth avenue. Her condition is such as to cause grave fears that she will not recover.

Urbana, O., Oct. 23.—Miss Nellie O'Hearn, who stepped on a rusty nail, died of lockjaw.

HOPING FOR THE END.

Believed at Strike Headquarters That It Will Be Soon.

IT DEPENDS ON THE OPERATORS.

Every Reason to Believe That Strike Will Be Called Off as Soon as All the Operators Agree to the Increase — Another Notice.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 23.—Around national headquarters of the United Mine Workers the belief was unanimous that the end of the strike will come within a very short time. President Mitchell, notwithstanding contrary reports, has set no date for calling off the strike. As soon as all the operators signify their willingness to pay 10 per cent advance in wages until April, the national executive board will be called in session to vote on ending the strike. President Mitchell appears to be more anxious about the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and the Delaware and Hudson Coal companies than any of the others. These companies have taken such a prominent part in the struggle that it is believed as soon as they post supplemental notices, the others will fall into line.

President Mitchell and a number of other labor leaders left here at noon to participate in a parade and mass meeting at Pottsville.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 23.—The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and the Delaware and Hudson, the Hillside Coal and Iron (the Erie), and the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal companies, through their general superintendents, agreed upon an additional notice as to the 10 per cent advance. The same will be posted at once, and will likely help to settle the great coal strike speedily.

Disturbance at Wilkesbarre.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 23.—No attempt was made Tuesday to resume work at the Stanton washery of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company which was closed Monday following an attack on the men by a crowd of women and boys. Shots were fired Tuesday from the windows of houses near by at the coal and iron policemen who were guarding the coal bank. The company withdrew the policemen from the bank and stationed them at the coal breakers. As soon as the policemen took their departure a crowd of men, presumably strikers, marched on the company's property, tore up 200 feet of railroad track and set fire to a tool house. In the afternoon all was quiet.

Falling Into Line.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 23.—The Forest Mining company at Archbald, employing 900 men has posted notices giving the 10 per cent increase in wages, reducing the price of powder to $1.50 a keg, the new price to figure in the increase to contract miners, and guaranteeing the increase to continue until April 1 and thereafter until further orders. The employees of this company have been on strike since last January. Notices of a like character are expected from all the large companies in the region. A meeting of all the district and national officers has been called for Wednesday and at this meeting, positive action will probably be taken.

South Carolina's Exposition.

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 23.—Directors of the South Carolina interstate and West Indian exposition have received the designs and drawings for buildings and grounds. The plans include about 15 important buildings, the largest to be the cotton palace, which will have an area of 50,000 square feet. Other buildings will be liberal arts, electrical palace, mechanical hall, agricultural hall, fine arts, administration, etc. For the government building it is proposed to have a replica of the White House. Active work on the grounds will closely follow the acceptance of the plans.

Dowie's Tormentors.

London, Oct. 23.—When the medical students who were arrested for mobbing John Alexander Dowie the Zionist of Chicago, were arraigned before Edward Nicholas Fenwick, police magistrate, he gave them a tongue lashing. Fines of £5 each were imposed on the students. A huge mob awaited Dowie at St. Martins town hall Tuesday morning and the "faith healer" rushed into the hall through a double cordon of policemen. The crowd howled and charged but the police stopped the rushes for the door.

Stevenson in Michigan.

Petoskey, Mich., Oct. 23.—Adlai E. his speech scheduled for this city because of a delayed train. He will speak at Clare at 4 o'clock p. m. and at Bay City and Saginaw at night.

SHERMAN'S FUNERAL.

Honorary Pallbearers For the Services To Be Held at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Following is the complete list of honorary pallbearers for the funeral of former secretary of state, John Sherman, Wednesday: Secretary Hay, Secretary Gage, Justice Harlan of the supreme court, Admiral Dewey, General Nelson A. Miles, ex-Senator J. D. Cameron, J. A. Kasson of the state department, Judge Bancroft Davis, Senator Hawley and Myron M. Parker of this city. The family has sent a personal invitation for the services in this city to such members of the diplomatic corps as have left cards at the house. Owing to the fact that Mr. Sherman was not at the time of his death connected with the state department it is impossible for the department to issue a general official invitation to the diplomatic corps to attend the services. It is the wish of the family, however, that all members of the corps now in Washington should feel themselves included in the invitation. The funeral train will leave Washington for Mansfield, O., at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon.

Preparations at Mansfield.

Mansfield, O., Oct. 23.—A meeting of Mansfield's citizens called by Mayor Brown was held Tuesday night to select honorary pallbearers and to adopt suitable resolutions of regret at the death of ex-Secretary John Sherman. A proclamation will be issued by Mayor Brown calling on the people of Mansfield to pay suitable tribute of respect to the memory of Mr. Sherman by closing the shops and factories, the various places of business, as well as the public schools during the funeral Thursday. The Sherman residence on Park avenue west, which has been closed since the family went to Washington in September to spend the winter, is being prepared for the funeral services.

President at Home.

Canton, O., Oct. 23.—President and Mrs. McKinley reached home at 10:30 a. m. A large number of people assembled on the station platform and bid them hearty welcome as they passed under a large flag, draped over a section of the platform. Their carriage was in waiting for them and they were driven direct to their home. Secretary Cortelyou, Dr. Rixey, the stenographers and clerks from the executive and members of the domestic household who were here during the summer also returned. President and Mrs. McKinley expect to remain here until election day, except that the president will go to Mansfield to attend the funeral of ex-Secretary Sherman.

Homecoming of Volunteers.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—At military headquarters here it is stated the first installment of the volunteers now in the Philippines will leave Manila Nov. 1. From that time until June transports will bring home about 25,000 men at the rate of from 4,000 to 5,000 a month. The sick will, if possible, be shipped on earlier transports that they may travel without crowding. The various regiments will be mustered out and paid as soon as possible after they arrive here. By this arrangement the camps now established at Presidio will be sufficient to accommodate the entire army.

Died During a Visit.

New York, Oct. 23.—The body of Mrs. Flora MacDonald Frazer of Chicago, sister of James and Alexander MacDonald, millionaire Standard Oil stockholders of Ohio, who died in the Hotel Bristol from gastric fever was taken to Columbus, O., for interment. Mrs. Frazer came here about 10 days ago with her daughter to visit Alexander MacDonald. She contracted a cold three days ago, from which developed the disease that caused her death. Mrs. Frazer was the widow of Alexander Frazer, a wealthy starch manufacturer formerly of Chillicothe.

British Cabinet Changes.

New York, Oct. 23.—A dispatch from London says there are reports of many cabinet changes impending. Lord Curzon is coming from India probably to take Mr. Balfour's place, Balfour becoming foreign secretary. Lord Cromer may succeed Curzon. Chamberlain seems slated to remain in the colonial office. Curzon's return means that he will be put in training for the position of premier.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The city of Hamburg's 40,000,000 marks four per cent loan was heavily oversubscribed here through previous applications, and the books were closed immediately after the opening.

Von Buelow's Successor.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—Baron Von Richthoefer, under secretary of the foreign affairs, has been appointed to succeed Count Von Buelow as minister of foreign affairs.

QUARTET OF FIENDS.

Gave Maudlin Girl a Fatal Dose of Knock-out Drops.

TRIED IN VAIN TO SAVE HER LIFE.

Frenzied With Fear They Drove From One Physician to Another But None Could Render Aid. Girl Died in Their Carriage.

New York, Oct. 23.—George Kerr, Walter McAllister, William Death and Andrew Campbell were arrested by the police of Paterson, N. J., accused of having caused the death of Jennie Bosschietter, the young woman whose body was found last Friday on the outskirts of Paterson. Kerr and Death are married.

The police say that Death has made a confession that the four were drinking with the girl and gave her "knock-out drops." They then took her in a buggy across the bridge into Bergen county, passing the girl's home on the way to the spot where the body was found. In the struggle which occurred there one of the men tripped the girl, throwing her heavily to the ground. The fall rendered her unconscious and the four men became frightened. They put her in the buggy and started back to Paterson with her, but changed their minds and again brought her back to the spot where the assault occurred. Leaving her there they secured a physician, whose name was not given. He pronounced the girl beyond help.

Death is an insurance collector, McAllister is a son of a well-to-do silk throwster; Kerr is a member of a wealthy family and brother of Former Judge Kerr and Campbell is foreman in a silk mill.

Garret A. Stowcroft has also been taken into custody. Stowcroft made a statement saying he was hired by McAllister, Kerr, Death and Campbell to drive them with Miss Bosschietter in a two-seated rig last Thursday night. He said they stopped at a saloon where the girl, after drinking, became stupefied. Stowcroft said he understood she had been given "knock-out drops." He says they placed her in the rig and she became unconscious. The men became frightened as the girl did not revive, and they drove to the office of Dr. Townsend. The girl continued in an unconscious condition and the men were advised to take her home. Subsequently they drove to the houses of two other physicians, but did not succeed in getting medical aid, and so went back to the office of Dr. Townsend. When they got there this time the girl was dead. They then drove to the Wagarow bridge, in Bergen county and left the body lying there, where it was found.

Kerr, McAllister, Death and Campbell were arraigned before Recorder Senior and were held without bail to await trial. They were charged with murdering Jennie Bosschietter "by giving her powerful drugs of which she died a lingering death."

Gates Against Stillwell.

Kansas City, Oct. 23.—John W. Gates of Chicago and others, holders of securities in the Guardian Trust company made application for a receiver for the company and for an injunction to prevent a meeting of the stockholders called for Wednesday to elect a new board of directors. This is said to be an attempt of the Gates element to oust A. E. Stillwell, who is president of the company, to gain control of its affairs and to stop it from aiding in the financing of the Kansas city, Mexico and Orient railway, the short line, which Stillwell is building between Kansas City and Topolobampo on the Pacific coast. The petition makes sensational charges against Stillwell and his associates. The court granted an order restraining the disposition of any of the trust company's assets and against the holding of the meeting. Final hearing will be had Wednesday morning.

It's Up to Denmark.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Relative to European reports of the effort of the United States government to purchase the Danish West Indies it is said here that there has been no change in the status of the matter for some time. The United States government is quietly awaiting developments in Denmark, where the last effective obstacle interposed to the transfer was a popular outcry against ceding the islands. When the Danish government is in position to make the sale, our government will be prepared to negotiate on the subject afresh. The impression is conveyed here that $7,000,000, the figure named as the price to be paid, is far beyond the mark.

The weather—
Fair and cooler to-day.
Thursday, fair.

SPEAKING of "honest" men, there were eight of them on the Electoral Commission in 1876, but they voted to complete the theft of the Presidency, committing the most gigantic political crime of the century.

SQUIRE JAMES ALLEN, formerly of Fleming County, was in Maysville the past week in the interest of that splendid new Democratic journal, The Morning Democrat, of Lexington. The success of this new paper has been remarkable from the very first. It was literally overwhelmed with advertising patronage by the business men of Lexington, showing that they feel the need of a true Democratic daily paper in that city. The paper is to be enlarged to accommodate the great demand for advertising space. In point of circulation The Morning Democrat's success has also been rather remarkable. May continued success crown Br'er Walton's efforts.

THE DUTY OF DEMOCRATS.

"In the spirit of Democratic unity which I believe now largely everywhere prevails I visit you as an humble representative of the Eastern Democracy, in the interest of a cause which is dear to every follower of Thomas Jefferson, to counsel together how best we may insure the success of those cherished principles of government which were first enunciated by that great founder of our party organization.

"I make no apologies to any one for my activity and interest in this campaign. I participated in the convention at Kansas City which framed the platform and nominated the candidates—a convention which treated me with courtesy from the commencement to the end of its proceedings—and as an honorable man I was bound to acquiesce in the results of its deliberations. It is true, as is well known, that I sought to secure a modification of the proposed platform in some particulars, in which, however, I was only partially successful, but being reasonably satisfied with its utterances on the questions which seem to form the leading issues in this particular election.

"While my personal views of certain portions of the reaffirmed platform may not have changed, particularly as to their wisdom and expediency, it does not follow that either honor, duty or consistency requires me to withhold my active co-operation in electing the ticket which was fairly and regularly nominated; much less do such considerations require me to cancel my party ties, or join another party, or support another ticket. I repudiate the idea so persistently inculcated by impracticable doctrinaires that every time a citizen is outvoted in a convention, a church, a corporation or a society—even upon a material matter—he is in honor bound to bolt and form another party, establish a new church, set up a rival corporation or organize a second society.

"This is a Government controlled by great political parties, the respective organizations of which are formed and maintained by those who largely agree upon certain policies of administration, but it is not expected, nor is it practicable, that such parties will, at all times, fully and accurately, represent the sentiments of every individual member. It is sufficient that some leading principles in which a citizen believes, are advocated by the party with which he is associated, to justify his support of that party, regardless of its attitude on subordinate questions which he may or may not approve. He need not indorse every line or plank of a platform in order to maintain his orthodoxy.

"It is submitted that it is the duty of Democratic citizens everywhere to support the nominations of the party regularly and fairly made, even though some party policies may not meet their entire approval. I am reasonably sure that the platform of no other party will suit Democrats as well as the platform of their own party.—Extract from ex-Senator Hill's speech at Cincinnati.

MAYOR R. W. NELSON

Brands as False a Report That He Will Support Yerkes for Governor.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 22.—In a telegram to a friend here, Mayor R. W. Nelson, of Newport, brands as false a statement made in the Louisville afternoon organ of assassination to-day that he would not support Gov. Beckham, but would vote for Yerkes, and believed he would be elected. The telegram read: "Correct a statement in Louisville afternoon paper that I will vote for Yerkes. I vote the straight Democratic ticket."

TALK ONE WAY

And Then Turn About and Do Just the Opposite.

The Record of Judge Pugh and His Party Held Up to Public View.

"It would be amusing if it were not so tragic," said a prominent citizen of Maysville, "to read the editorials of Republican papers in and out of the State, that attempt to criticize the actions and principles of the Democrats."

"Continuing, the gentleman said: "All of them denounce the Democrats because they contested the last election in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, and refused to let Taylor & Co. retain office because they simply had a majority upon 'the face of the returns.' Yet, every one of them heartily approve Hayes' stealing the Presidency from Tilden. They endorse Pugh for unseating fifteen Congressmen, all of whom were Democrats, and 'on the face of the returns' had from 300 to 8,000 majority. All denounce the Democratic Legislators for not reading the voluminous testimony taken before the Committee on Contest, and yet they approve Pugh, when he acknowledges that he never read a line of the testimony taken before the Election Committee in Congress, and yet this Christian gentleman, without evidence, voted to unseat fifteen Democrats. They denounce Mr. Holland, Speaker of the House of Representatives, for not complying with parliamentary law, and yet approve the rulings of Boss Reed, who grossly violated all rules, when to the advantage of his party. They denounce the assassination of Garfield by Guiteau, but endorse the assassination of Goebel by Taylor, Powers, Howard and Youtsey. They pronounce all of the evidence for the Commonwealth as prejudiced, although none of the witnesses had an incentive to lie. They claim the testimony for the defense to be true, although there is every incentive for it to be false. They claimed they wished to repeal the Goebel election law, and yet, the Republicans voted against its repeal. They pose as the advocates of a non partisan election law, yet no Republican Legislature ever passed such a law in any State in the Union. They denounce bimetalism and yet the McKinley administration has coined more silver in the last four years than Bryan would have done under a free silver bill. They oppose the issue of greenbacks, yet they permit the national banks, at pleasure, to double or halve the issue of national bank notes. The issue of greenbacks costs no one a cent, but the issue of national bank notes puts money in the pockets of the wealthy and enables the money power to run the government. The virtues of the Republican party are shams. It is simply a great political machine, supported and ruled by the 'trusts,' and all of its legislation is dictated by monopolies."

YOUTSEY NOW JOKING.

Dr. Knox Believes Now the Prisoner Has Been Shamming All Along.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., October 22.—The condition of Henry E. Youtsey suddenly became greatly improved this morning and he began to talk as intelligently as any man could. His half brother, Colonel L. N. Crawford, saw him alone, and said that he was satisfied that Youtsey understood him perfectly. Youtsey told one of the guards he felt like he had been asleep twenty years, and when Dr. R. L. Carrick came in he said:

"Good morning, doctor, have you come to see Rip Van Winkle?" He spoke of his long beard, and his father told him he turned his out when he was Youtsey's age, and had let it grow ever since and suggested that his son do the same. Youtsey replied that Bob Franklin might mistake him for Jim Howard, as it had been said he looked like him, and he might lose his neck in consequence. A number of friends came to see him and he talked personally to all.

Dr. D. B. Knox, the physician appointed by the court, says he believes now that Youtsey has been shamming all along, which belief is shared by the the guards and people generally. Youtsey was shaved this afternoon by Mr. Vaughn, one of the guards, and walked about the room. He will be taken to Frankfort to-morrow.

The prosecution has all along maintained that Youtsey was shamming, and this was Judge Cantrill's firm belief when he insisted on bringing the defendant into the court house and forced his attorneys to proceed with the trial. Youtsey's awakening in apparent possession of all his mental faculties within less than forty-eight hours after his conviction seems to vindicate this position and show the wisdom of Judge Cantrill, who has been subjected to so much unjust abuse and insult during this trial.

Mr. J. Q. Ward, of Paris, won the title of champion wing shot of Kentucky, Saturday, over twenty-one contestants in the Kentucky Gun Club's shoot at Louisville. Mr. Ward made a perfect score at twenty-five live birds. Jake Gay, of Clark, also made a clean score, but one of his birds fell dead out of the boundary. The trophy is a handsome silver cap.

KEHOE AT CATLETTSBURG.

The Tri-State Independent Pronounces His Speech a Fine One—Won Many Friends.

[Catlettsburg Independent.]

Hon. James N. Kehoe, Democratic candidate for Congress, closed his four days' campaign in Boyd County with a stirring address at Morse opera house Saturday night.

It was first intended that he should speak at the court house, but it was seen early in the evening that the edifice would be inadequate, and even the opera house could not begin to hold the crowd.

A great many country people and several street car loads from Ashland were present, and in the assemblage could be seen several prominent Republicans who came out to hear the prevailing issues discussed.

Mr. Kehoe was introduced by Attorney C. L. Williams, and was given a tremendous ovation as he stepped forward. He thanked the audience for the honor shown him, and for an hour and forty minutes he held his auditors' most rapt attention with an able and forcible treatise on the issues of the day. Mr. Kehoe unquestionably gained many friends and admirers by his speech on this occasion.

INDUSTRIAL CRISIS

Threatens All Europe, Says Our Vice Consul in Frankfort, Germany.

Simon W. Hanauer, Vice Consul General in a recent letter from Frankfort, published in the United States Consular reports, says:

"The wave of industrial prosperity in Europe, which has steadily risen since 1895, has taken a turn and begun to recede. All signs point toward a crisis in industrial and financial lines, which may occur before two years have passed. Any political disturbance of note may bring on the crisis suddenly and without warning. Coal mining is still 'booming,' as the supply is not equal to the demand. The iron and steel works, including the manufacture of many lines of machinery and steel plates for warships, have orders which it will take some months to fill, but factories making small ironware, nails, needles, bicycles, sewing machines &c. are curtailing production and reducing working forces and wage scales.

"There are doubts if the immensely capitalized electrical works of Germany and other countries can keep fully employed after present contracts are filled. This line of industry, which in Germany alone represents an investment of nearly $300,000,000, has been largely instrumental in creating the present boom.

"Failures have already begun in the building trade, which in the large cities has been of a speculative nature and rested mainly on borrowed capital. Rents for business houses and dwellings have advanced, but will topple on the first beginning of a business crisis.

"The German papers speak in alarming tones of the sad position of the textile industry, where stoppages of factories are the order of the day. Late statistics of the Gera district show 6,022 looms idle out of a total of 11,829. The weavers still employed there earn but $1.904 to $2.38 per week. This wretched wage, which is to support a family is next to a starvation rate, especially as fuel and provisions have greatly advanced in price and the poor operative must pay government tax and school rate besides.

"The stock market is a delicate seismometer which denotes the coming upheaval. Shares of industrial companies have already commenced to decline, though the reports of their operations promise for this year large dividends. The high interest rates which have ruled for money this year and the high taxes which capitalists and business interests must pay in Germany have also tended to affect the boom."

Ex-Congressman John D. White, for years a leading Republican of the Eleventh district, now Prohibition nominee for Governor, will speak at the court house Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. His exhortation of Bradley, Yerkes and other Republicans is said to be very severe.

Hon. Bourke Cochran, one of the greatest orators of the day, was greeted by an immense throng at Cincinnati last evening. Music Hall was crowded to the doors and hundreds were turned away. Mr. Cochran's speech was an able and eloquent appeal for the election of Bryan. Four years ago this week he spoke in the same hall against Bryan.

FALL

Petticoats

New, attractive, durable, inexpensive. A splendid showing. There are silks, of course, but all the prettiness is not confined to them. Some very effective petticoats are produced from the humble materials—the moreens and satteens that so closely resemble the more costly fabrics. The styles in these inexpensive sorts are a close copy of the silks.

BLACK SATTEEN PETTICOATS $1 to $3.75.

OF COLORED SATTEEN $1.75 to $3.25.

BLACK MOREEN $3.25 to $4.75.

There's a lively demand for petticoats of "Neva" at $1. Wonderfully like silk in appearance and much stronger. Also for those of black satteen at same price. Two styles of each.

Have you tried our triple knee stockings for your boys and girls? They are stockings built for business. That is the reason for the triple knees. They are stockings that are popular in price and once bought are always bought. You mothers whose youngsters are a'ways out at the knees will be interested in these stockings and the price at which they are sold—

UNDERWEAR!

There is always something to be learned in Underwear selling. People have so many whims when it comes to buying undergarments. We study their wants from season to season with the result that our stock of Underwear at present comprises about everything that whimsical humanity could inquire for. We start the Ladies' Ribbed Vests at 15c. and run them up by gradual stages to $1.25. Ladies', Boys', and Misses' Union Suits from 25c. to $1.75. In the Men's Underwear department you'll find a large variety of kinds and splendid values for little money. Random and ribbed goods at 25c. the garment. Fancy Blue Ribbed Heavyweight Underwear, sold elsewhere at $1 the suit, is sold here at 39c. the garment, or 75c. the suit. Extra heavy Cotton Fleece Undershirts and Drawers at 50c. A special number is a wool Fleece garment, usual price $1.75 the suit, priced here at $1.25. Come and see us for your Underwear wants.

A Corner in.....

CLOAKS

From what many of our patrons tell us we have "cornered" real up-to-dateness in Cloaks for this community. Our stock this season more than upholds our former good Cloak reputation. In Jackets we are showing Automobiles, Etons and the new short cut garment in all colors, from $3.98 to $16.50. The Cloth and Plush Cape stock is replete with everything that is new; prices from 98c to $12.50. We would like to tell you, too, all about the large line of Children's Reefers and Misses' Jackets and the superb stock of Collarettes; but space will not permit of it. More about them anon.

"CIVIL LIBERTY."

A Sample of What the People
May Expect Under Republican Rule.

An Old Democrat Recalls Some of the Outrages Committed by the G. O. P. in Former Years.

"I greatly admire the bold and fearless course the BULLETIN has taken in this campaign," remarked one of Mason County's life-long Democrats a few days ago.

"May I be pardoned a suggestion," he continued, "as to what brand of 'civil liberty' the great common people will get under Republican rule. I recall the fact that Gen. Gilbert once dispersed a Democratic State convention at Frankfort at the point of the bayonet and arrested its members, holding them for hours for daring to 'peaceably assemble' to nominate a State ticket. I also recall the fact that in the county of Mason, where six men had voted for Lincoln and 'civil liberty' in 1865, but one ticket was allowed; that a Legislature, elected at the point of a bayonet, disfranchised every Kentuckian who had joined the Southern army;
that a Democratic Legislature repealed
this law, restoring every Confederate soldier to citizenship. If it could be done I should like, as an object lesson, to see a reprint of the last edition of the BULLETIN—tea paper and all—before its suppression by David Clarke, Oct. 12th, 1864. They will say those were 'war times.' Are not these war times? Then the war was fought on 'our own territory' at home; now it is being fought on 'our territory' 7,500 miles from home. Then every Democrat was denounced as a traitor, a sympathizer with Jeff Davis.
Now from every stump in the land, every Republican speaker from Roosevelt and Hanna up, are denouncing six and a half million Democrats as traitors and sympatizers with Aguinaldo. Then they said Jeff Davis was keeping up the war, hoping for Democratic success. Now they say Aguinaldo is keeping up the war, hoping for Democratic success. Yes, the 'bloody shirt' is waving, but who is responsible? You have well said the election of McKinley will be taken as an indorsement of his policy. With 100,000 soldiers in the Philippines to keep the peace, and a standing army of 100,000 more at home for the same purpose; with government by injunction, for the trusts, where will 'civil liberty' be? I do not know how these suggestions will strike you, but there are thousands of young men, who are now voters, who never knew of the dark days of our Civil war, and of what we endured in the name of
civil liberty."

Mrs. Mary Hickey Succumbs to an Attack of the Grip—Funeral Thursday Morning.

The friends of Mrs. Mary Hickey were saddened by the news of her death last evening. She had been ill only a week, with an attack of the grip, and many were not aware of her serious condition.
The final summons came between 6 and 7 o'clock, her death occurring at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Cummins, on East Third street, with whom she had resided the past year or so.

Mrs. Hickey was the widow of the late James Hickey, and was sixty-seven years of age. Her maiden name was Russell.
She leaves two children,—one daughter, Mrs. Cummins, and one son, James, who lives at St. Paul.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock at the residence, Burial at Washington.

Harry Ward's Minstrels Coming.

There is an old saying that nothing is certain in this world. However, on the face of that it is safe to state that Harry Ward's Magnificent Minstrels are certain to command the attention of the amusement patrons Wednesday, October 31st.
This magnificent organization has traveled the world over and has won golden opinions from all sorts of people. They are well and favorably known, and are hailed with delight.

This season the company is composed of such celebrities as Harry Ward, Billy Gorman, Casady Bros., Tommy Crockett Mullen and Vonder, Earl Taylor, the great Newton, Decker and Rasch, Billy James, the marvelous Briggs and a number of others too numerous to mention, making the grandest and most complete company, it is claimed, touring the continent.

The Grocery Store
That Pleases

—ITS CUSTOMERS.

That's why our trade is always increasing. We give prompt attention to all orders and serve our patrons with the best goods obtainable. Every time our groceries fail to give satisfaction we cheerfully exchange them or give your money back if you want it. You are running no risk in sending your children to our store; we give them the same goods and attention we give the parents.
